SUGGESTIONS.

All delegates are expected to be prepared to discuss the subjects of the papers.

Each chapter is responsible for the work assigned its members. If one to whom an article is assigned is unable to be present, let the Chapter see that an article is prepared and is presented at the District League.

Reduced rates have been granted over the Southern Pacific Railroad. Those paying full fare on this road MUST take a receipt from the agent when buying ticket to convention. On presentation of this receipt, signed by the District Secretary, they will be returned for one-third fare.
