

Container List

2016.053.0002 ~ Letter ~

02/01/2017

| Container Description | Folder | Location | Creator | Date Subjects | Title |
|---|--------|--------------------------|----------------------|----------------|--|
| Item 01 This is a reply to a letter from Dr. James Carlton Nelson dated October 5th (no year noted). This letter mentions: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- grass species- Prof. Schaffner's grass bulletin- a mention of 'keys' in context to the bulletin and grass species- Job's Tears (ornamental grass) and "occasionals"- flu epidemic (presume the 1919 epidemic as this letter is from about that time) | | Columbus, Ohio | Edna Mosher | undated | Reply from The Ohio State University Department of Zoology and Entomology |
| Item 02 This is a reply to a letter from Dr. James Carlton Nelson dated August 29th, 1919. This letter mentions: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- a package of specimens was recieved separate of this letter- list of id numbers followed by species names- a mention of a "manuscript on Carex for Professor Abrana, Illustrated Flora of the Pacific Coast" | | New York, New York | Kenneth K. Mackenzie | 1919 - 08 - 29 | Reply from Kenneth K. Mackenzie, Attorney and Counselor at Law |
| Item 03 This is a reply to a letter from Dr. James Carlton Nelson dated October 29th, 1918. This letter mentions: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- a several grass species (Daucus pusillus, Mazus rugosus, Eleusin indica, Ipomoea bona-nox) with a short dialogue about them and mode of dispersment- an Austrian botanist named Wawra- a mention of the article "Botanical Exploration of the Hawaiian Islands" published in "Hawaiians Forester"- a paragraph where MacCaughey defends his varied interests in his subjects for being so diversified and not detailed enough (interesting prose). | | Honolulu, Hawaii | Vaughan MacCaughey | 1919 - 01 - 02 | Reply from National Education Association of the United States State Director for Hawaii |
| Item 04 This is a reply to a letter from Dr. James Carlton Nelson This letter mentions: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- several presumedly botanists and discusses their work | | Cambridge, Massachusetts | J. Francis MacBride | 1919 - 05 - 10 | Reply from Harvard University, Gray Herbarium, J. Francis MacBride, Assistant |
| Item 05 This is a reply to a letter from Dr. James Carlton Nelson This letter mentions: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- how bad the author's handwriting is (first page and a half)- the pricing of a book that is being published- Mentions persons Weatherby, Badyer, Wigand, R. M. Herb of Laramie, WY, Asst. Prof. Poole, Dr. L. H. Bailey of Ithica, NY.- Suggests and discusses the writting of a "little book in the form of an essay commenting in routine fashion upon the trend of the times in scientific publication. | | Cambridge, Massachusetts | J. Francis MacBride | 1919 - 03 - 31 | Reply from Harvard University, Gray Herbarium, J. Francis MacBride, Assistant |

| Container Description | Folder | Location | Creator | Date Subjects | Title |
|--|--------|--------------------------|----------------------|----------------|--|
| Item 06 | | Los Angeles, CA | Geo. L. Morley | 1919 - 03 - 03 | Reply and acknowledgement from Geo. L. Morley |
| This is a reply to a letter from Geo. L. Morley This letter mentions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - receipt of a specimen of Zauschneria from Prof. Peck, as requested by Mr. Nelson - Mentions persons named McBride and Prof. Peck, and University of California, Pomona College and California Academy of Sciences.. | | | | | |
| Item 07 | | Honolulu, Hawaii | Vaughan MacCaughey | 1919 - 02 - 19 | Reply from National Education Association of the United States State Director for Hawaii |
| This is a reply to a letter from Dr. James Carlton Nelson dated January 18th, no year. This letter mentions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Mr. MacCaughey's plans to give some courses at Washington State Normal School, Bellingham during the summer of 1919 - Suggestion that since he will be passing through Salem, he would like to look in on Mr. Nelson | | | | | |
| Item 08 | | Los Angeles, CA | Geo. L. Morley | 1919 - 02 - 21 | Letter from Geo. L. Morley |
| This is a letter from Geo. L. Morley This letter mentions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - the discovery of a citation in a copy of Contributions from the Gray Herbarim of Dr. Nelson's find of Zauschneria californica in Curry Co. OR. - Increased interest in Zauschneria - University of California, Baker Herbarium of Pomona College | | | | | |
| Item 09 | | Cambridge, Massachusetts | J. Francis MacBride | 1919 - 05 - 31 | Reply from Harvard University, Gray Herbarium, J. Francis MacBride, Assistant |
| This is a reply to a letter from Dr. James Carlton Nelson This letter mentions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Osmaronia, Nuttallia T. & G., Holodiscus, Erysinum asperum, Trillium, C. tenella, C. grandiflora, Lathyrus sphaerieus Retz., S. fragosa Suksd., S. californica - Canadian Geological Survey, British Columbia, Greece, Italy, Oregon, Washington, California - Henry - Nelson's plans for what appears to be a summer collection excursion, with MacBride stating "that I trust we'll share in the "loot". | | | | | |
| Item 10 | | New York, New York | Kenneth K. Mackenzie | 1919 - 09 - 15 | Followup letter from Kenneth K. Mackenzie, Attorney and Counselor at Law |
| This letter lists specimen numbers with idenification, Mentioned are Carex interrupta Boeckl, Carex olympica Mackenzie, Carex tumulicola Mackenzie, Carex Cusickii Mackenzie. | | | | | |
| Item 11 | | Cambridge, Massachusetts | J. Francis MacBride | 1919 - 08 - 30 | Reply from Harvard University, Gray Herbarium, J. Francis MacBride, Assistant |
| This is a reply to a letter from Dr. James Carlton Nelson This letter mentions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - that Dr. Nelson should send his 125 specimens be patient about a reply - Mr. MacBride descriptions of some of his duties at the Herbarium, including editing of advertising. - Dr. Robinson | | | | | |

| Container Description | Folder | Location | Creator | Date Subjects | Title |
|--|--------|--------------------------|----------------------|----------------|--|
| Item 12 This letter acknowledges receipt of Dr. Nelson's letter dated Sept. 19th and the included fern specimens. Mr. McColl is asking if he can get a specimen of Woodsia Oregana that his collection is missing. Also, he is sending Dr. Nelson some fern specimens. | | Owen Sound, Ontario | W.R. McColl | 1919 - 10 - 22 | Followup letter from W.R. McColl, Realtor, Insurance Agent, Financial Agent |
| Item 13 This is a reply to a letter from Dr. James Carlton Nelson This letter contains: - discussions of identification of specimens - mention that Dr Nelson took a Civil Service examination, and Mr. MacBride asks what he was going to do about it since he was sure he had passed. - Mr. St.John, Prof. Fernald, Dr. Robinson. Dr. Rydberg, Mr. Deam, Mr. Schneider, Miss Day, Mr. Mackenzie | | Cambridge, Massachusetts | J. Francis MacBride | 1918 - 12 - 18 | Reply from Harvard University, Gray Herbarium, J. Francis MacBride, Assistant |
| Item 14 Included in Dr. Nelson's correspondence, this is a page of biological description in Latin and German. There is a note at the bottom that is written in the style of J. Francis Macbride. | | unknown | J. Francis Macbride? | undated | Biological Discription in Latin and German |
| Item 15 Reply to a letter from Dr. James Carlton Nelson This letter contains: - discussions of identification of specimens - mention that Dr Nelson took a Civil Service examination. - Mr. Rafinesque | | Cambridge, Massachusetts | J. Francis MacBride | 1919 - 01 - 06 | Reply from Harvard University, Gray Herbarium, J. Francis MacBride, Assistant |
| Item 16 This letter has descriptions of some of Mr. McColl's collection. Also, his concern thatwestern collection are short of some specimens. | | Owen Sound, Ontario | W.R. McColl | undated | Letter from W.R. McColl, Realtor, Insurance Agent, Financial Agent |
| Item 17 Mentions the Federal Income Tax rates for 1917 - 1919. Needs translation. | | Jamaica Plain, MA | Unknown | 1913 - 07 - 13 | Letter, written in German, from Arnold Arboretum |
| Item 18 Article titled New Plants From Oregon by Morton E. Peck that describes 4 undescribed species and varieties in the 1936 Willamette University herbarium. Mr. Nelson is not mentioned in this article. Mr. Peck is, several times. | | unknown | Morton E. Peck | 1937 - 06 - 22 | Page 93-94 from Vol. 50 of Proceedings of the Biological Society of Washington |
| Item 19 To Dr. James Carlton Nelson This letter contains: - discussions of identification of specimens - discussion of "syntactic agreement" of the name of a species and the rest of a sentence. - discussion of gooseberry / current identification - discussion of publishing an article written by Dr. Nelson - Mr. E.P. Sheldon, Mr. Sukadorf, Dr Robinson | | Cambridge, Massachusetts | J. Francis MacBride | 1919 - 01 - 21 | From Harvard University, Gray Herbarium, J. Francis MacBride, Assistant |

| Container Description | Folder | Location | Creator | Date Subjects | Title |
|--|--------|--------------------------|----------------------|----------------|--|
| Item 20 To Dr. James Carlton Nelson This letter contains: - discussions of identification of specimens - suggestion that the well-written article of Nelson's should be sent to the American Book Company. Macbride further praises the article, and encourages Nelson to spend more time writing. - Mr. E.P. Sheldon, Miss. Day, Mr. Greene, Mr. Schneider, Mr. Henry, Mr. Rydberg, Mr. Nash | | Cambridge, Massachusetts | J. Francis MacBride | 1919 - 03 - 11 | From Harvard University, Gray Herbarium, J. Francis MacBride, Assistant |
| Item 21 A reply to a letter from Dr. James Carlton Nelson dated April 3rd 1918. This letter discusses various botany specimens. | | Portland, OR | M.W. Gorman | 1918 - 04 - 14 | Reply from The Forestry Building, Portland OR, M.W. Gorman |
| Item 22 A reply to a letter from Dr. James Carlton Nelson dated March 31st 1918. This letter discusses various botany specimens. It is a single page of a multi-paged letter; the last sentence of the page is incomplete. No identification of the author. | | Washington, D.C. | unknown | 1918 - 04 - 09 | Reply from The United States Department of Agriculture |
| Item 23 Pages 2 and 3 of a numbered list of specimens | | unknown | unknown | unknown | unknown |
| Item 24 This letter answers Dr. Nelson's letter to Mackenzie dated August 27th, 1918 and lists specimens with idenification discussions, | | New York, New York | Kenneth K. Mackenzie | 1918- 11 - 25 | Followup letter from Kenneth K. Mackenzie, Attorney and Counselor at Law |