

Oregon Department of Transportation Library and History Center

ODOT Library

- Formed as part of the agency in 1937
- Currently part of the ODOT Research Section
- Transportation and engineering-specific collection
- Located in the Mill Creek Building behind Safeway in downtown Salem

ODOT History Center

- Collection of historic photos going back to the first state contracts in 1917
- Files of information on highways, bridges, state parks, and projects
- Open to the public by appointment under normal circumstances
- Some requests may require a Public Records Request

Resources on Agency History Page

- Descriptions of milestones in agency history
- Early Biennial Reports
- Publications relating the history of the agency and state highways
- Collection of State Highway Maps
- Podcasts
- Information on historic bridges and ferries

Contact Information

Laura Wilt, Librarian

Laura.e.wilt@odot.state.or.us

503-986-3280

Mill Creek Building

555 13th St NE

Salem OR 97301

