State Library Catalog

The screenshot shows the State Library of Oregon Catalog homepage. At the top left is the logo and the text "State Library of Oregon Catalog". To the right are links for "My Lists", "Select Language", and a help icon. Below this is a search bar with a dropdown menu set to "Everything", a "Search" button, and a link to "Advanced Search". The main content area is divided into three columns. The left column contains navigation links: "State Library Catalog", "About Us", "Photograph Collection", and "Inclusive Language in the Catalog". Below these is a "Public Access to Collections" notice regarding COVID-19 and a "Find In My Library" button. The middle column features a "What's New: Library and Information Science Collection" section with a featured item: "Maximizing the impact of comics in your library : graphic novels, manga, and more" by Jack Phoenix, published in 2020. The right column has an "Ask a Librarian" form with fields for "Your Name", "Your Email Address", and "Your Question", and a "Start Chat" button. At the bottom, there are links for "Request Help by Email", "Helpline: 503-378-8800", and "Other Organizations".
